

Nine Keys To Miraculous Living

A Seminar by

Loretta M. Siani, Ph.d.

Based On A Course In Miracles

The first five seminars focused on how we seemingly separated from God, denied our true nature and misdirected our miraculous powers. To uncover the keys to miraculous living we are now going to focus on how to reclaim our true nature and redirect our miraculous powers. Before studying the nine keys it is important to realize three things.

First, I have quantified nine specific keys to miraculous living. This does not mean that there are only nine keys. What it does mean is that I have divided the keys into nine categories. They could have been divided differently or for that matter called by different names and added up to more than nine keys. What I have attempted to do by dividing them up this way is to make it easier to understand the spiritual solutions that support miraculous living.

Second, my quantification of the miraculous keys in numeric order may imply that there is a linear, step-by-step process in applying them. . However, miracles are not linear and do not follow a logical pattern. Miracles transcend the sum of their parts and as such are not restricted to the rules of time and space. We cannot really say which step occurs first or which is more important. All we can say is that these nine miraculous keys make up a constellation of powers that together give rise to miracles. Moreover, these keys all come from the same source. In that regard they are all similar and all different at the same time. Just as we human beings are similar and different at the same time so are these keys. It's difficult to take apart something that is really one and talk about it as if it were not. However, in deference to the linear thinking of the conscious mind we are going to look at the miraculous keys as if there were separate parts and as if there were a sequencing of steps involved in applying them. Having said all of this they will be discussed one at a time in the following order.

1. The Miraculous Key Of Desire
2. The Miraculous Key Of Belief
3. The Miraculous Key Of Making A Decision
4. The Miraculous Key Of Serving A Holy Purpose
5. The Miraculous Key Of Visualization
6. The Miraculous Key Of Letting Go Of The Past
7. The Miraculous Key Of Asking For Help
8. The Miraculous Key Of Surrender And Acceptance
9. The Miraculous Key Of Rest

All in all, these nine keys are mutually dependent and mutually supportive of one another. However, I must add that, to my way of thinking it is hard to think of the last six coming before the first three. The first three seem to be the holy trinity upon which all the others depend. Nevertheless, the important matter is not to get hung up on the form but rather to remain focused on the content of their miraculous power.

Lastly, my discussion of how to integrate these nine keys into your life to manifest miracles may make matters seem simple. However, just because something seems simple does not mean it's easy. Life in this world of illusion is far from easy. It's a difficult journey peppered with pain, humiliation and fear. Often we take two steps backward for every one taken forward. Spiritual growth comes in millimeters not giant steps taken all at once. Like the accomplishment of any worthwhile goal becoming our own miracles workers takes great willingness and much devoted practice.
